Autumn 2
18/12/25

Another year over! Thank you to all of the support this term and well done for getting through the longest Autumn term ever! Well done to all of the children in Robin, Puffin and Swift who performed their Christmas play twice yesterday. A bitter sweet end to the term with the panto shenanigans but the children have had a lovely end to the year and thank you again to the PTA for all of their support. Have a wonderful Christmas break see you all again in 2026.
